9 SIXSIXONE FULL BRAVO CARBON, FULL BRAVO 2 AND FULL COMP HELMETS

The new range from Californian kings of dirt protection, these helmets feature the same great fit and comfort of the original Full Bravo helmet. Both the Bravo Carbon (see our test page next issue) and Bravo 2 helmets have a full helmet venting system and crash replacement policy. Hand layered, with a fibreglass outer shell and clear-coated graphics, these are some pretty slick-lookin' MTB helmets. The Full Bravo 2 features an EPS foam inner liner for maximum shock absorption, and is covered in Coolmax to soak up sweat. The Full Comp helmet is economic full-face protection. The shell is injection-moulded polycarbonate.

RRP: FULL COMP $199, FULL BRAVO 2 $299, FULL BRAVO CARBON $426
